Description	The Institution Innovation Council (IIC), in collaboration with the Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Cell of Vignan's Institute of Information Technology Engineering College, is organizing a session on "Basics of Intellectual Property Rights and its Importance for Innovators and Entrepreneurs" on 11th November 2024, from 10:00 AM to 01:00 PM, as part of Global Entrepreneurship Week. The keynote address by Mr. Madipati from Eeva IP Services was incredibly insightful and valuable. His deep expertise in the IP domain and practical approach to transforming research into patents provided attendees with a clear roadmap for protecting their innovations. The session was not only informative but also highly engaging, sparking meaningful discussions among faculty, administrators, and department heads. Overall, it was an enriching experience that equipped attendees with essential knowledge and strategies for safeguarding their intellectual property.
